Foreword

As the class of 1962 leaves Camp Hill High School, we take with us a myriad of indelible memories.

One cannot attend a school without feeling its influence upon him. For this invaluable experience in our preparation for life we are eternally grateful. In years to come, we shall look back upon the rich heritage the school has left us, a heritage far-reaching and immeasurable.

Inherent in all activities which take place in Camp Hill High School is the theme of the Lion. This year we have chosen him as the theme for our yearbook. When you examine the following pages, note how he participates in all you do, as he represents the spirit of Camp Hill High School.

It is our sincere wish that, as we draw our high school experience to a close with our yearbook, you will notice herein something which is very meaningful to you, for, if you do, we, the class of 1962, have made a success of our effort.

DR. DONALD ENDERS, supervising principal of the Camp Hill schools, relaxes in his attractive office. He is an ever-willing aid to all students who come to him to seek his wise advice and kind co-operation.

W. REED ERNST, principal of the Camp Hill High School, awaits the throng of students who daily find their way into his office. Here the students will get the right answer, a friendly smile, and a pat on the back for work well done.

Dedication

The class of 1962 respectfully dedicates The Camillon, the climax of our high school experiences, to Mrs. Eleanor C. Harris.

Through your instruction in English, you have given us the most valuable of our educational skills—the ability to express our thoughts and feelings accurately to others. Your teaching of a foreign language has given us another prized gift—an understanding of a people whose way of life is different from ours. Throughout your courses, your demand for extra effort has given us pride in our accomplishments.

In Memoriam

The students and faculty of Camp Hill High School sincerely regret the death of Miss Dorothy Kendall, Camp Hill art teacher, August 6, 1961.

Beloved by thousands of students who have benefited from her guidance and teaching, Miss Kendall is remembered by all who knew her as one of the finest individuals and most respected teachers in the community. Besides fulfilling her duties in the classroom, both to senior and junior high students, Miss Kendall was director of the Art Service Club. Camp Hill students will never cease to be grateful to Miss Kendall for her organization of, and imaginative ideas for, the annual Spring Fever Dance. Besides instilling in her students a sense of appreciation for beauty and art, Miss Kendall was an ever willing aid to students seeking guidance and counseling on any problem.

For her devoted service and constant willingness to help, Miss Kendall will be cherished always in the hearts of Camp Hill students and faculty.

National Honor Society

The members of the National Honor Society are chosen by the faculty on the basis of character, scholarship, leadership, and service. Under the guidance of Mr. Isaiah B. Harley, this honorary scholastic organization holds elections twice yearly, in the fall for seniors and in the spring for juniors.

Quill and Scroll

The Quill and Scroll, an honorary journalistic society, draws its members from the staffs of the yearbook and the HIGHLIGHT. This year its officers were: president, Frances Hanckel and secretary-treasurer, Jim Russell. The members are selected by the advisors of HIGHLIGHT and Camillon. Each spring, juniors and seniors are inducted into the Quill and Scroll. Selection is on the basis of meritorious service to one of the school publications. Other members for 1961-1962 include: Susan Leamy, Sheila Kessler, Marsha Gantt, Sara Gaw, Gail Blasingame, and William Young.

Camp Hill High School, Camp Hill, Pa.

HANCKEL AND YOUNG HEAD STAFF

Under the direction of Fran Hanckel and Bill Young, our High Light staff worked diligently to produce their seven issues. They were backed up in the news department by Sally Gaw, whose responsibility it was to assign and compile all news articles for each issue. Gail Blasingame, head of the feature department, wrote many of the humorous and interesting anecdotes which amused and confused their readers.

As head of the glory department (sports, that is) Jim Russell's duty was to write accounts of all athletic contests, except for girls' sports, which Jim regretfully turned over to Marsha Gantt. Arshad Ameer Khan, our exchange student, was Art Editor. Arshad was responsible for the lovely designs which were placed on the feature, and when copy was short, on the news pages. Skip Ratcliff played his role as Layout Editor with skill, patience, and most important, cunningness in springing brand new layouts on poor editors who had just made everything on their page fit.

REPORTERS SWEAT UNDER NEWS EDITOR

The job of getting the paper out could not have been completed without the hardworking reporters. Those poor people were harangued by the news editor without ceasing until their articles came dribbling in, one by one. The editors, however, will always be grateful to the reporters even if they did threaten to give them two's in citizenship, etc., etc.

BUSINESS STAFF SCRAPES BARREL

Teddy Zimmerman, Jean Evans, and Sue Leamy headed the business staff whose duty it was to gather all ads. These girls had a great deal of responsibility (in other words, getting High Light out of the red) in seeing that each issue could be printed.

Richard G. Pye advised the literary staff until November, when Carol Smith took charge. Both of these people as well as John A. Judge, the business advisor, should be commended for valor and courage beyond the call of duty.

We Hope the Yearbook

THE 1962 CAMILLON STAFF

As can be seen by the pictures on these pages, putting out a yearbook proved to be a difficult and time-consuming but rewarding task for the members of the Camillon staff. There were innumerable bitten finger-nails and suppressed curses as each deadline approached. Yet, somehow, with the expert prodding of Mrs. Myers, our literary advisor, we managed to get everything done on time. Many thanks to members of the literary, photography, art, and sports committees for their fine efforts.

Will Look Like Us???

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Howard and the members of the advertising, subscriptions, features, and patrons committees. Although the difficult job they did is often ignored, it was second to none in importance because without the money their efforts brought in there would have been no yearbook.

Much credit is also due to the typing committee. Their job was perhaps the most time-consuming, because they had to type every word of the copy used in the yearbook. The staff is very grateful for their fine job.

I would also like to thank Jim McKecknie and Mr. Moore, who took many of our pictures, and Margi Shaner and Mrs. Stump, who did our art work.

You missed, George . . .

Good straight arm, Gaul

Get him, Haas

Opening the season against Susquenita, the Lions took advantage of the Black Hawk's inexperience, scoring the first upset of the season. A fired-up Lower Dauphin defeated Camp Hill for the second year in a row. Palmyra, scoring early, maintained their lead and handed the Lions their second defeat. In the fourth outing the Lions squeezed by a tough Northern 14-13. In their defeat to Boiling Springs, the Lions lost a heart breaker, losing on an interception late in the fourth quarter. The picture brightened as Camp Hill defeated Shippensburg 20-0, breaking the Lions two T.D. a game jinx. Newport and Biglerville, both surprisingly easy opponents, ran the Lion's record to 5-3. Big Spring, the league champions, and East Pennsboro ended the season dismally by defeating the Lions on the last two weekends.

Who's that tapping on your shoulder?

Good line play by the Lions stops East Penn.

Lose something, John?

Gee, coach, we even got blocks that time.

Next week you start wrestling

You're a big help, Haas!

The Championship team of 1961-62 compiled an overall record of 19 wins against 7 losses, identical to last year's record. In conference play, the Lions were 15-1, again the same as last year.

The great ability of Coach Krout's team this year was demonstrated in the two play-off games. Against Hamburg, the Lions came on strongly to nip their opponent late in the final quarter 45-44. The '62 court season was ended as the Lions put up a strong battle, but bowed to Hempfield 67-56.

3 points for a near fall recorded by Bob Esson.

The wrestling team got off on the wrong foot by losing three consecutive matches to Mechanicsburg, Cedar Cliff, and Lower Dauphin respectively. At East Pennsboro the grapplers finally started rolling with a forfeit at 95 lbs. and pins from Dick Hughes and Karl Trimmer. With the help of pins from Paul Knudsen, Bill Jamieson, and Bob Esson, the Lions just squeezed by the experienced Boiling Springs team. Defeating Big Springs was the grapplers' third straight league victory. Pins were recorded by Rick Tyner, Scott Wood, Bob Bulota, and Karl Trimmer.

In the Northern match, Tom Albright, Paul Knudsen, and Dick Hughes recorded pins in leading the Lions to victory. Camp Hill next defeated the inexperienced Susquenita team. Falls were posted by Tom Albright, Bob Bulota, Karl Trimmer, and heavyweight Don Johnson.

By defeating Shippensburg, the Lions came home with their sixth straight league victory. Albright, Knudsen, and Bulota recorded falls for the victors. Hosting Biglerville, the grapplers posted their seventh straight win. Pins were posted by Albright, Tyner, Jamieson, and Bulota. Going into the last match, tied for 1st place, the wrestlers were defeated by a strong Newport team.

Camp Hill's great track team remained dominant in the Blue Mountain Conference by compiling a 7-0 record for the 1962 season.

Against Shippensburg, Al Sommerville, John Maguire, Charlie Marshall and Clyne Keller were all double winners for Camp Hill.

After warming up against East Pennsboro, Camp Hill won the Class B crown by defeating 21 other schools at the Shippensburg Invitational Track Meet. Al Sommerville won both the 100 and 220 yard dash there.

By clobbering Boiling Springs, Camp Hill won its third straight track meet. Dave Taddeo was the big gun for Camp Hill. He took firsts in the high jump, broad jump, and the javelin.

Hosting Northern, Camp Hill ran off with a first in almost every event. The 880 yard relay team came through with their third straight win.

Traveling to Big Spring, the Lions won their fifth consecutive meet by edging the host club 64-54. Keller, Sommerville, and Marshall were double winners for Camp Hill.

Susquenita suffered its first loss by losing 64-54 at the hands of Camp Hill. The Lions came through with four of the remaining six places to clinch the meet.

On May 12, the Lions came from behind to nip Susquenita for the Blue Mountain crown. Al Sommerville was the big gun as he captured the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

After defeating Newport Camp Hill captured the District 3 Class B crown. Dave Taddeo high jumped 6'2½" for a new record. Al Sommerville won both the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

Up in the air with Keds, kids!

The lassies of Camp Hill High started their 1961 hockey season with a 4-0 loss to Cumberland Valley on September 28. Their luck didn't change until three games later. The three successive losses were to Central Dauphin, Carlisle, and Susquehanna.

Despite loss of experienced players, with the return of only three varsity letterwinners, the Lassies came through with a win over Northern 2-1, on October 24.

A hard-hitting Mechanicsburg team downed Camp Hill 2-0. The scheduled game with East Pennsboro was canceled, giving the girls a final record of one and five.

Goals this season were scored by Diane Denison, Libby McClure, Christy Bieri, Chris Hultman, and Leslie Swartz. Elaine Kistler contributed greatly with her fine defensive play.

Strike while the iron is hot. Go to it, Chris!

Plagued by injuries throughout the season, the Lassies compiled a 3-6 record in league play. The loss of several valuable players proved to be crucial in facing this season's opponents. In the first game, Camp Hill downed Susquenita by a score of 53-42. Sheila Dunn exhibited outstanding offensive play by contributing 30 points, aided by Elaine Kistler's expert defense action.

The following game with Boiling Springs was exciting but heartbreaking. The final score was 36-35, the one point, loss giving evidence of the girls' ever fighting spirit. Libby McClure led the scoring column with 11 points. The Lassies then lost to East Pennsboro, in spite of Sheila Dunn's 23 points. Camp Hill overwhelmed Boiling Springs by a 40-30 victory and edged Susquenita, 34-29.

With the return encounter, with East Pennsboro, the Lassies' winning streak was ended. Chris Hultman led with nine points, assisted by Joan Morgan's outstanding successive rebounding. The remainder of the games were fought for a losing cause. One victory to be lauded was the decisive win over the Alumnae. In contrast to previous years, the varsity team looked in fine shape.

Four sophomores showed superb ball handling this season: Libby McClure, Chris Hultman, Dian Denison, and Denise Crego.

The team and supporters regretted the loss of two excellent ball players, Sheila Dunn and Elaine Kistler, who were both sidelined with leg injuries. Joan Morgan and Frances Hahn were to be commended for their fine efforts this season.

Angel! Come to my arms!

"Mother Is a Freshman," written by Christopher Sergel, was presented by the Senior Class on November 13, 1961. The story of a mother's riotous episodes when she returned to college with her teenage daughter provided the audience with an evening full of laughter and entertainment. The play was under the capable direction of Mrs. Nina R. Hamilton.

THE CAMPETTES. Camp Hill High School's representative square dancing team started practicing during Christmas vacation with a "Ho, Ho, Ho" and a "Dos-a-Dos." Its six weeks of energetic swinging and flinging, under the choreography of Mrs. Herbst, were climaxed by a second place victory in the state competition at the Farm Show. — "Twistin' isn't everything!" — This fine performance was rewarded with invitations to dance at a Cumberland County talent show and a school assembly. "What a swingin' group!"

Ann Zicarelli entered our senior class in the middle of the second semester. Although she came to Camp Hill from William Penn late in her senior year, Ann was soon well-known to all of her classmates. Her everlasting gaiety and warm personality were indeed an asset to the Class of '62.

Dr. Richard H. McFeely, principal of the George School, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, was guest speaker at Camp Hill High School's fifty-second annual commencement exercises held June 11, 1962. Dr. McFeely stressed the importance of America's future citizens' working toward peace and world understanding. It was emphasized that the goal of every American should be an endeavor to achieve an awareness of the concept of the brotherhood of man.

Arshad Ameer Khan, our American Field Service exchange student, came to Camp Hill from Lahore, Pakistan. "Arsh" spent the year living with the Robert Trace family and attending Camp Hill High School with his "brother," Bob.

Arshad's outstanding artistic ability has been evidenced throughout the year by his many contributions to the display cases, High Light, and the Senior Play program. Along these lines, he is preparing for a career in textile designing.

Many organizations throughout the school and community requested that Arshad speak to them about his native country. He also took part in many panel discussions with other exchange students from neighboring high schools.

The hearts of the entire community were captivated by Arshad's warm personality. As our exchange student he has brought into our lives a true feeling of understanding for his country and its people. Arshad, as a vital part of our senior class, will always remain in the hearts of Camp Hill students and faculty.

The lion, symbolizing Arshad's home and school in the United States, and the Pakistani woman, representing his native country, are linked by the symbols of the Camp Hill High School and his college in Lahore.

No, you never pour water-into acid!

The Advertising Committee of the 1962 CAMILLON wishes to take this opportunity to express our thanks to this year's advertisers.
It is our earnest hope that you, the readers of this book, will patronize these businesses. We feel quite certain that you will be as much rewarded by your patronage of them as we have been by their patronage of us.

OUR STORY BEGINS AT THE END OF A WIRE . . .

Precision Engineering
Applied to the end of a wire . . .

Wherever electricity is generated, distributed, or utilized the wires and circuitry must be connected or terminated. AMP pressure-type terminals and application tools have been used for many years to make these connections, thereby making the use of solder and a soldering tool an outmoded technique.

The high point of Class Day—The Passing of the Lantern from the senior class president to the junior class president. The lantern symbolizes the eternal spirit of each senior class at CHHS. With the hope that the spirit of the Class of '62 will continue to live and grow in the Class of '63, the senior class takes its final bow.

Class Prophecy

Twenty years from now:

Sue Allyn will still be attending the opera.

Pat Alvord will be the world's fastest typist.

Bonnie Andrews will still be getting props for the Senior Play.

Judy Bahler will still be pounding her gavel.

Carol Bair will still be hiding from Miss Klemm.

Rick Batemen will finally become the Big Man on Campus.

Nancy Batsch will be drum majorette for the Marine Band.

Bob Bender will be twenty years older.

Gail Blasingame will be marching on Washington.

Hobie Blosser and Bill Bowman will be dating our grandchildren.

Alan Bowman will be the Phillies' bat boy.

Hank Bowman will arrive at the Seattle World's Fair nineteen years after it closed.

Jeff Bretz will be the next face carved on Mount Rushmore.

Natalie Bretz will be a lifeguard at the 1982 Olympics.

Carol Bricker will still be making up tests.

Pat Burris will be taking twelfth-year Latin.

George Cobb will be running a slenderella salon.

Jim Elliott will have polished his white bucks.

Mike Elliott will be head of the F.B.I.

Bob Esson will still be celebrating the end of wrestling season.

Dave Ettline will be national director of the Y.W.C.A.

Jean Evans will be a housemother at Mercersburg.
